CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of One Week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed: but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. are prepared to advise intending purchasers, as far as possible, and will execute bids on their behalf, free of charge. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

- 114A CORNWALLIS (CHARLES, FIRST MARQUIS), GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA. A VERY REMARKABLE SERIES OF SEVENTY-FIVE LETTERS (THIRTY-FOUR OF WHICH ARE HOLOGRAPH) ADDRESSED TO HENRY DUNDAS (AFTERWARDS VISCOUNT MELVILLE) OF THE INDIA BOARD, DATED FROM INDIA, BETWEEN 24 AUGUST, 1786, AND MAY 10TH, 1793, AMOUNTING TO ABOUT 400 pp.; A SIMILAR VOLUME, containing copies of Henry Dundas's Letters to Cornwallis, 358 pp.; APPENDIX to Lord Cornwallis's Letters, containing various Enclosures, Copies of Letters received by him, etc. in very thick vol. together 3 vol. contemporary calf (Dundas' Letters in rough calf, with royal arms in blind on sides) 730 9/10

** Charles, second Earl and First Marquis Cornwallis, was sent to America with reinforcements during the war against the insurgents and won the victory of Brandywine. Acting on Clinton's instructions he established himself at Yorktown and was there bottled up by Washington and the French troops, and forced to capitulate.

The correspondence is not an official one, but kept Dundas informed of the situation in India.

The whole correspondence throws vivid light on the work of Cornwallis, and is therefore of the highest importance as material for the history of India, especially as it has NOT BEEN PUBLISHED IN ANY COMPLETE FORM.

- 155 BYRON (George Gordon, Lord) A Very Fine A.L. s. 1½pp. 4to, Ravenna, August 7th, 1819, to the Count Guiccioli :

I write my answer in English to the letter, which I had the honour of receiving from you and your amiable consort . . .

I make no apology for troubling you in English which you understand better than I can write in Italian, and even if you did not—I would rather be unintelligible in my own tongue than in yours. My time has passed in a melancholy manner since your departure—Ferdinando and I have been riding as usual—and he has told me a sad story of Madam's losses . . .

I desire my best respects to the Countess your gentle Consort—and with many thanks for your kind invitation—and in the hopes of seeing you at Bologna in a few days, believe me to be Very gratefully

and affectionately yours

Byron

- 156 BYRON (George Gordon, Lord) A.L. s. in Italian, 1½pp. 4to, Ravenna, August 21, 1820, to Signore Cavalier Guiccioli (translation) :

I have been informed that in a letter written by you in Rome . . . you have stated me to have been a man of 35 in the year 1819, which would now make me 36. This has caused me no little surprise as I could not conceive how in consulting the Biography of living men for other information regarding my person for your own purposes you could have overlooked the passage where my birth is referred to as having taken place in the year 1788, which makes me at most thirty-two.

I thank you for your generous present of a lustrum, but as I am not disposed to accept it I inform you accordingly . . . If I in drawing up a memorandum of your history were to make you a man of seventy, adding one seventh to your age, I do not think you would be pleased, and I certainly will not suffer this injustice to be committed—no small one having regard to the truth. And you know very well that it is as much in human nature to ask for years from God as it is to refuse them from men

I have the honour to be
Your humble and devoted servant

Byron

- 158 BYRON (G. G. Lord) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo. 17th November, 1813, about some vases which he was sending to Lady Mountnorris :
 . . . as one of them contains bones (a thousand years old to be sure which may render them less formidable) it may be as well to warn the timid part of the family against the horror of a sudden discovery of these pious relics.
- 159 SCOTT (Sir Walter) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Abbotsford, to John Pringle, asking his correspondent to help him to entertain the Duc de Chartres
- 160 BYRON (G. G. N. Lord) A short Auto. Note signed "B." undated, asking Mr. Murray to send him his paper
- 161 SCOTT (Sir Walter) A. L. s. (initials), 1p. 4to [? 1809], to Mr. Murray, sent with the conclusion of an article—SCOTT (Walter), Father of Sir W. Scott, A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Edinbr. 15 Feb. 1797, torn in the folds—SOUTHEY (R.) A. L. s. 1p. 8vo. undated, addressed to Mr. Murray, a tiny hole in Southey's signature; and another (4)
- 162 SCOTT (Sir W.) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Abbotsford, 8th August, 1831, to Mrs. John Ballantyne, a pathetic letter mentioning Ballantyne's embarrassed financial condition, on p. 4 is a note by Mrs. Ballantyne concerning this letter
- 163 CARLYLE (Thomas) A short Auto. Note s. (initials) giving directions for letters to be forwarded—CARLYLE (Jane Welsh) Seven A. L. s. 10 pp. 8vo [1860-65] giving instructions for forwarding letters, with 5 envelopes (8)

 You shall have a note to Mill whenever you like. A sincere, a clear logical, conscientious, and otherwise highly qualified man of his sort. He used to come much about me: but I think has grown very solitary of late years mentions letters from "Friends of the Nigger" from America (5)

- 165 BURNS (Robert) A Series of Nine Autograph Letters and Poems by or relating to Burns, together with 2 vol. of Plutarch's Lives, 8vo, original calf; the letters are bound in blue morocco; together 3 vol.

- (a) BURNS (R.) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Ellisland, July 16th, 1790, to "My dear William"

I have leisure only for a very short letter, but it will cost you nothing as I write by a friend going to London. I have not been able to find Mr. Murdoch's address as I have mislaid or lost his letter, & have desired him to send you a card intimating when & where to call for him. I heard lately from the West & all friends are well. I wish much to hear from you.

- (b) BURNS, A. L. s. "B." folio, to John Ballantyne, relating to his Poems:

The inclosed is my latest work.—If the perusal of it gives you little pleasure, it at least gives me an opportunity of subscribing myself, etc.

Globe Inn

Dumfries, 25 Oct. (1791).

- (c) BURNS, Auto. MS. leaf from his Excise Book, 2 pp. 12mo, has four columns for figures and the words: "In Malt, a gauge. In Jry a gauge and a charge.—In Malt, four gauges.—Books right"

- (d) BLOOMFIELD (Robert) A. L. s. 4 pp. 4to, 19th January, 1802, to Lord Buchan:

. . . The illustrious soul that has left among us the name of Burns, has often been lower'd down to a comparison with me, but the comparison exists more in circumstances than in essentials. That man stood up with the stamp of superior intellect on his brow, a visible greatness; and great and patriotic subjects would only have call'd in to action the powers of his mind, which lay inactive while he play'd calmly and exquisitely the pastoral pipe . . .

- (e) CROMEK (R. H.) Three Auto. Poems copied from Burns—O Mither Dear, 2 pp. 4to—There's nane o' them a' like my bonnie Lassie, 1 p. 4to—The Lowlands of Holland. From Herd's Coll. MS. 1½ pp. 4to

- (f) GILFILLAN (Geo.) A. L. s. Dundee, 26th May, 1869

- (g) TELFORD (Thomas) A. L. s. 2 pp. folio, Shrewsbury, 7 December, 1794, to Boyce, Architect, Dumfries:

I hope you informed my friend Robin Burns that I was desirous of paying my respects, but tell him that unless he leaves off his Baudy songs that he'll get his Fairen.

- (h) CUNNINGHAM (Allan) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, 27, Lower Belgrave Place, 11 Sept. 1828, to Professor Wilson ("Christopher North")

. . . What Burns said to the Mouse I may with equal propriety say to you.

Ye ken—ye ken

That strong necessity supreme is

Mang sons of men.

. . . When he [the Proprietor] sees that Sir Walter Scott, Professor Wilson, Mr. Southey, Mr. Lockhart and one or two more are resolved to support me he will comprehend that the speculation will be profitable and close with me accordingly. Etc.

- (i) NEAVES (Charles) A. L. s. 8 pp. 4to, Woodhall, 3 Aug. 1849, to Professor Wilson ("Christopher North")

. . . The Literary Character—the lives & minds of literary men seem to me a fertile field for interesting discussion . . . See your own Burns, Johnson, Scott. Etc.

The Manuscript is partly in the hand of an amanuensis, but 58 pages are Autograph, and the remaining 62 pages are corrected by the author, with lengthy additions written on the blank versos (first published in 1858), enclosed in a half blue morocco portfolio

- 196 MILTON (Thomas and Richard) Deed on vellum, 10 Dec. 1677, between Thomas Milton, of the Inner Temple, London, Esqre., and John Peed, of Hopton, Suffolk, and Richard Milton, of Ipswich, Suffolk, brother of Thomas Milton, relating to premises in Corton and Lowestoft, Suffolk, signed by Thomas (twice) and Richard Clarke, with seals

* * This document establishes the relationship of the nephews of John Milton and their places of domicile.

- 197 BECKFORD (William) AUTO. CORRESPONDENCE with Messrs. Smith of Leicester Square, Forty-one A. L. s. 90 pp. 8vo, June 9, 1840 to 15 April, 1844, relating to his art purchases at the sale of Horace Walpole's collections at Strawberry Hill; together with an A. L. s. 3 pp. 4to, to English, Gloucester Place, 13 Feb. 1823; and two other Documents, 44 in all, red morocco

Asks 'Who purchased the Maid of the Mill?' . . . The Rembrandt drawings are exquisite . . . the Claudes . . . I beg may be reported minutely . . . as we must carry off a few . . . even at high prices. Etc. Gives prices for 3 lots. Not being a Candidate for Bedlam, I perfectly approve yr. proceedings at this strange, frantic sale . . . I shall expect the report on the Claude drawings . . . you have trimmed the Dutch flounders handsomely Well done Mr. H. . . . If you had imitated him in a little way and secured the ovals I should not have Grumbled. Notes two pictures in 'to-morrows' sale. Vases of Architectural design are very interesting to me. These scraps are more likely to be worth my having than Mr. Esdailes', M. Angelos, Raffaelles, Julio Clovios. Etc. I am not for giving violent prices for M. Antonios. Etc.

- 198 LONGFELLOW (H. W.) A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo. Cambridge, Mass. March 30, 1868, to John Wm. Holmes, torn in the folds, with remains of envelope :

Your interpretation of the poem of the "Singers" is a very good one . . . My idea was first to sketch in a few lines the Poetry of Passion, the Poetry of Action, and the Poetry of Devotion; or if you will, the Romantic, the Epic, and the Religious; and then to protest against the fashion some critics have, of comparing these three schools and giving one or the other the precedence. Etc.

Manuscript, with manuscript and typewritten index, the manuscript consists of approximately 80 pp. folio, each page written on the right half of the paper only, with numerous additions, corrections, notes, etc. on the other half; with autograph signed presentation inscription "'TOGETHER' Manuscript. This manuscript is for his friend, Mr. R.—(who I hope has learnt a little more English in the last two years) to be sold by him on a rainy day, from Norman Douglas," with loose proof of illustration, Italian paper boards, folio, together with the Index, 29 pp. items on slips of paper stuck down in folio notebook: with the typed version, 17 folio pages with small corrections, unbound* (3)

The Property of Algernon Gissing, Esq.,

Ivy Cottage, Bloxham, Banbury, Oxon.

- 203 SWINBURNE (A. C.) A. L. s.  $2\frac{1}{2}$  pp. 8vo, The Pines, Putney Hill, dated Oct. 29, 83, to George Gissing, expressing approval of manuscript poems sent to him—MEREDITH (G.) A. L. s.  $2\frac{1}{2}$  pp. 8vo. Box Hill, Dorking, Friday, Sept. 17, 97, to George Gissing, asking him to dine, and referring to "The Whirlpool," with envelope (3)

- 204 GISSING (GEORGE) A VERY FINE SERIES OF NINETY-SEVEN A. L. s. (some initials only), two Letter Cards and a Postcard, dating from 1876 to 1902, addressed to his brother Algernon; the first two letters, written in America, give interesting details of his life there. Some of the references to his books, etc :—

Dec. 8th, 83. New Novel will be finished on Tuesday. I send it to Chapman & Hall. The name is "The Unclassed."

June 19th, 84. I am quite ready for a new novel which must be finished by November at latest; and after my holiday, I shall fag at it strenuously. It's to be called "Demos"—I think a new and good name. There will be nothing offensive in it, its object being to depict the religious, political, and social movement, now at work among the masses.

On re-reading "Isobel Clarendon" I am delighted to find how good it is; there are pieces of writing, which, for the mere English, can stand by anything in recent fiction; that I am assured of.

How do you get on with Daudet? Is he not purely delightful. The style is admirable, and the characters intensely real. Few French Novelists have written more humanly.

March 3rd, 87. First Vol. of "Thyrza" finished in proof. I am myself, dissatisfied with it. Runs to 291 pp. but the other Vols. are I think longer.

Did I tell you that "Denzil Quarrier" is published on the Continent by Heineman & Balestier? They give 25 guineas. Half all these foreign profits come to me.

Jan. 11, 97. I have half promised to write a monograph on Dickens . . . It would be a new effort for me. But such an engagement is very perilous, considering that I can never count upon a week's quietness.

several letters describe visits to France and Italy

A COLLECTION OF EARLY CLASSICAL AND OTHER MANUSCRIPTS

ON VELLUM AND PAPER.

From the Library of a deceased Nobleman.

SIZES MIXED.

LOT 205.

ENEAS SOPHISTA. Dialogus qui Theophrastus inscribitur vel de anima: Johannes Chrysostomus. Opus quod nemo potest ledi nisi a seipso, MANUSCRIPT, on paper, 119 ll. 24 lines to a page, cursive hand, original beechwood boards, leather back defective (8½ in. by 5¾ in.) Italian, XV cent.

- 206 ALPHONSUS X. TABULAE ASTRONOMICAE, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, 31 ll. 33 lines to a page, written in red, green, blue and black ink, 2 large capitals in colours, contemporary deerskin (defective), over wooden boards (10½ in. by 7¾ in.) XV cent.

* * At the end of the Tables are 8 ll. of text with the following colophon: Expliciunt canones Tabularum Illustris Regis Alfoncii quos Reverendus mgr Johannes Danckow de Saxonia compilavit. Rynt flays.

- 207 Ambrose. Liber Sancti Ambrosii de lapsu virginis consecrate, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, 8 ll. 26 lines to a page, written in a neat and regular hand, ornamental initial in red on f 1, purple velvet binding (9 in. by 5¾ in.) XII cent.

- 208 Annali Veneziani. MANUSCRIPT on paper, 304 ll. 46 lines to a page, written in a small neat hand, marginal notes in red, some margins stained, old vellum (12 $\frac{3}{4}$  in. by 8 in.) ITALIAN, XV CENT.

** The Annals extend from 1338 to 1491.

- 209 APULEIUS (L.) METAMORPHOSES [THE GOLDEN ASS], MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM AND PAPER, 236 ll. 23 lines to a page, written in a neat gothic hand, calf gilt, in good condition with wide margins (11 $\frac{5}{8}$  in. by 8 $\frac{1}{2}$  in.) XV CENT.

** According to the long and detailed colophon the manuscript was written by a cleric named Holt de Heke of Osnaburg at Rome in 1389. It is clear, however, from the style of writing that the whole manuscript is a copy made about a century later, perhaps in France.

- 210 ARISTIDES QUINTILIANUS. DE MUSICA [in Greek], MANUSCRIPT on paper, 70 ll. 23 lines to a page, very neatly written, original limp vellum, water-stain at top, otherwise in very good condition with wide margins (9 $\frac{5}{8}$  in. by 7 $\frac{1}{4}$  in.) XVI CENT.

** Greek musical manuscripts are of very rare occurrence. The text of Aristides did not appear in print till 1652, when it was issued by Meibomius of Amsterdam. The present manuscript was unknown to Albert Jahn, the editor of the most recent edition (1882), and contains the additional matter found in the Oxford manuscript.

- 211 Aristoteles. Libellus de Secretis secretorum: Hieronymus. Sermones Dominicales, etc. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM AND PAPER, 166 ll. 30 lines to a page, portrait initial in gold and colours on F 1 with three-quarter border, old stamped calf over wooden boards, defective, brass clasp (6 $\frac{1}{8}$  in. by 4 $\frac{1}{8}$  in.) ITALIAN, XVI CENT.

** Between the two parts of the book are 13 ll. containing Medical recipes, recipes for making colours, and an astronomical note in Italian. Colophon on F 50: Completum per fratrem Sebastianum de Verona ordinis minorum de observantia sub 1470 die 17 mensis Junii in loco Sancti Bernardi Veronæ.

- 212 Astronomy. Summa de astris compilata ex dictis Ptolomæi, Albumasar, Alfragari, Alcabitii, Oamar, Zahel et Masala, MANUSCRIPT, 114 ll. 27 lines to a page, in a neat cursive hand, ten carefully drawn astronomical diagrams, water-stained, old morocco over wooden boards, loose in binding (8 $\frac{1}{4}$  in. by 6 in.) ITALIAN, XV CENT.

- 213 Bible. Latin, parts of the Old and New Testament, MANUSCRIPT on paper, 118 ll. 54 lines to a page, double column, neatly written with rubrication in red, half morocco, sides faded (15 $\frac{1}{2}$  in. by 11 in.) ITALIAN, XV CENT.

- 415 CROMWELL (Oliver) A VERY FINE A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, London, July 27th, 1646, to "My noble Friend, Thomas Knyvett Esquire, at his House at Ashwellthorpe," Norfolk :

I cannot pretend any interest in you for anything I have done, nor ask any favour for any service I may do you. But because I am conscious to myself of a readiness to serve any gentleman in all possible civilities, I am bold to be beforehand with you to ask your favour on behalf of your honest poor neighbours of Hapton, who, as I am informed, are in some trouble, and are likely to be put to more, by one Robert Browne your Tenant, who, not well pleased with the way of these men, seeks their disquiet all he may . . .

Carlyle says of Knyvett :

Knyvett of Ashwellthorpe in Norfolk, is one of the unfortunate Royalist Gentlemen whom Cromwell laid sudden hold of at Lowestoft, some years ago, and lodged in the Castle of Cambridge—suddenly snuffing out the Royalist light in that quarter.

I have not been entirely well for some time—all from my own fault of exposing myself to the weather contrary to medical orders. I am now getting better, but cannot yet venture out. Believe me I am very sorry for it. In about a fortnight I will see you either in Town or at Islington. In the meantime, could you spare a day for Hampstead? You can have a bed. Do come by the Coach, and enquire your way through Pond Street, to Mrs. Brown's, Wentworth Place. This will be charitable to one not ill enough to forget out of doors. Remember me to your Cousin and to all whom I may know. If C. C. C. should chance to be with you—give my particular greeting to him, with the assurance of my constant idea of him—not withstanding our long separation and my antipathy—indolentissimum to letter writing

Yours truly

Dear Sir

As well as a bad pen can do it, I must thank you for your friendly attention to the wishes of our young friend Emma, who was packing up for Bury when your Sonnet arrived . . . I know she will treasure up both that, and your second communication among her choicest rarities as from her Grandfather's friend, whom, not having seen, she loves to hear talk of. The second letter shall be sent after her with our first parcel to Suffolk, where she is to us alas! dead & Bury'd . . .

Enfield is come out in Summer Beauty, when will Mrs. Dyer and you come & look on it. We can give you a bed, remember! Emma has left hers you know . . .

I rest

Your obliged

C. Lamb.
